ACCOUNT PROTECTION

SIPC® Account Protection - Pershing and Avisen Securities are members of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC®). As a result, investor-owned assets held in custody by Pershing are protected by SIPC, up to $500,000 in value, including $250,000 in cash awaiting reinvestment. SIPC provides protection for eligible client assets held in custody by a SIPC member brokerage firm should the SIPC member firm fail financially and become unable to meet the obligations to its clients. SIPC does not protect against losses due to market fluctuation or for client assets not held by a SIPC member. For more information about investor asset protection, visit SIPC's website at www.sipc.org

Lloyd's of London - Excess Account Protection - In addition to SIPC protection, Pershing also provides coverage in excess of SIPC limits through Lloyd's of London. Accounts have additional securities protection to cover the net equity of customer accounts, up to an overall aggregate loss limit of $1 billion for eligible assets - over all client accounts and a per-client loss limit of $1.0 million for cash awaiting reinvestment - within the aggregate loss limit of $1 billion. This additional account protection offers the highest level of coverage available in the industry. Lloyd's currently holds an A+ rating from Stand & Poor's (S&P®), an A rating from A.M. Best and an AA rating from Fitch. For more information about Lloyd's of London, go to www.Lloyds.com
